Islam George Braswell

This book is essential reading for anyone who desires a complete, balanced view of Islam beyond what appears on the nightly news. Written from a western Christian viewpoint, but with a detailed first-hand knowledge of Muslim life, Islam: Its Prophet, Peoples, Politics, and Power digs deep beneath the surface to reveal Islam as a rich, proud and powerful force in world affairs. Though Dr. Braswell's book is thorough and scholarly, his personal experiences and insights make it a practical travel guide as well. And despite the enormous scope of Islam, the book's clear organization and careful research have produced a valuable reference for ministers, missionaries, diplomats, businessmen, students and travelers.

- Historical overview of Islam
- Details of prayer rituals, social customs and traditions
- Special focus on Islam in North America
- Reference section including maps, diagrams and glossary
