WARNING: This is a dark romance with a hot alpha male, an anti-TSTL heroine and steamy good times. Due to explicit language, violence, adult situations, scenes involving m/m/f and m/f, alcohol and drug use, this novel is recommended to adults that can separate fiction from reality. "I'm hot as Vegas desert in the summertime. He's arctic, complete and utter ice. I don't think past the end of the day. He has long term goals. The adrenaline is like a spike in my veins. He doesn't seem to have a conscience, let alone a pulse. I like him enough to stick around. He doesn't seem to care whether I live or die. Neither one of us trust each other, and in a life of crime, that can be a huge issue." - Mags Magnolia "Mags" Reynolds is no shrinking violet. Her innocence is taken away from her at a very young age. Since she can remember, she's been a ruthless criminal but she's managed to survive to see her twenty-fifth birthday. Maxwell "Max" Cartier, an expert in his craft, enters her life shortly after a sudden change of circumstances leaves her adrift yet again. He doesn't want to be her lover or friend. He only wants her for one last job that will mean a fortune and his retirement. The best laid plans are always the first to go awry, and their situation is no different. Both will have to learn the hard way there is no such thing as easy money when they are both merely Devil's prey. Although this is a trilogy, all novels are cliffhanger free and should be read in the order they are released to understand the overall plot arc. Devil's Prey Devil's Pawn (October, 2014)
