By far, the most important treasure was passed down through the Dohrmann lineage was their father's teachings. These "lessons" became the watchword of their lives and the lives of millions of others who attended his courses and workshops or hired him as their personal coach and trainer. The list of those who benefited from Alan Dohrmann's trainings is long and impressive, including Walt Disney, Napoleon Hill, Dr. Edward Deming, Alexander Everett, Bill Dempsey, Clement Stone, Warner Erhardt, and many others. In today's high-tech, high-stress world of early burnout and what's-the-use syndromes, these lessons are intended to serve as an inspiration to those who share the author's passion for preserving the authentic experience and values of family and family life. It is his hope and dream all of you will become "runners" who will carry these lessons with you wherever you go, just as he has done; and that you, too, will share them with your friends and family.
