Eight hundred years of frustration for the ancient Jihadist group, the Tribe, has come to a breaking point, violating the quiet southern comfort of Durham. Driven to desperation by its leader, the pathologically violent Saladeen, they make one final effort to recapture the Mandyion, known in the West as the Shroud. Determined to succeed by any means necessary, Saladeen promotes both his holy war and his loyal followers Beyond Inquisition. Once joint custodians of the Shroud with the Tribe, The Brotherhood is totally unprepared for the return to 13th-century aggression

Thus begins The Brotherhood's desperate defense of the Holy Linen, a deadly internecine struggle that pits them against, murderous jihadists, the Vatican, and the explosive secrets revealed within the Shroud itself.
