When literature professor Anderson Williams arrives late to a father/son date to find his father dead, his world collapses around him. Now, not only is he mourning his father, but he's scared for his life while trying to make sure his father's face doesn't become one of the thousands of cold cases in some dusty room. Then he meets NYPD officer, Leo Sung Kim, and he isn't prepared for his body's reaction to the cop.

Leo Sung Kim's seen horrible things as a cop. But the latest serial killer is worse than anything he's encountered. To make things worse, he's instantly in lust with Anderson which makes staying professional almost impossible.

Even as Leo fights his emotions, the killer gets bolder. When the smoke clears, Leo could not only lose his heart but his life.
