BOOK FIVE: Hope Richards has always kept to herself, and as a teenager suffered from an eating disorder. She no longer starves herself, but she still struggles with self-image issues. Now in her twenties, she's ready to start her life. But during her first night in Steel Corner, violence erupts all around her, and one very intense bear shifting MC member protects her. Dallas lost his son and ex-wife in a car accident months ago. He allows his anger to build inside of him until it consumes every inch of his soul. But then Hope comes into his life and she is the first real thing he has wanted in a long time. She eases him and his bear, but they can't move forward until their pasts are put behind them, and sometimes that is easier said than done. BOOK SIX: Stinger, a member of the Grizzly MC, leads a life that is dangerous and violent. When The Brothers of Menace, an MC in the next town over, ask the Grizzlies for help, they don't hesitate to step-up. They are asked to help transport abused prostitutes to a safe house. It's easy enough, except Stinger sees Molly Clark, a nurse for the battered women, and instantly knows she will be his. As a former old lady to Malice from The Brothers of Menace MC, Molly knows what is involved with being linked to an outlaw club. When Stinger, a bear shifting biker, makes it clear that she is his, Molly should run the other way. But she doesn't, and instead finds herself wanting much more with the hardened outlaw. When Malice tries to say Molly is still his, Stinger shows him what it means to go up against a Grizzly.
