Conspiración (Trilogía de Cicerón 2) (Spanish Edition) Robert Harris

Roma, siglo I a.C.

Ambición, traiciones e intrigas políticas marcan la apasionante lucha por el poder entre Cicerón, el cónsul, y su príncipe opositor, un joven líder populista llamado Julio César.

Segunda entrega de la gran «Trilogía de Cicerón» de Robert Harris.

Año 63 a.C. Cicerón ha sido nombrado cónsul de Roma, el cargo más alto de la República, tras una ascensión turbulenta hasta la cima del poder que le ha granjeado los peores enemigos. Así, su política se ve condicionada por las intrigas y conspiraciones a su alrededor, que convierten la capital del Imperio en un verdadero laberinto de poder.

En semejante escenario, Cicerón debe enfrentarse a Julio César, un joven líder que busca el favor del vulgo, y a Catilina, un personaje sibilino, conspirador y maquiavélico. Son años de disputas, complots y ambiciones desmedidas que marcarán el rumbo de Roma e inscribirán el nombre de sus protagonistas en la Historia.

Una novela brillante que ilumina una época de conjuras e intrigas políticas que supondrán el declive de la República romana. Conspiración recrea de forma magistral la vida de Cicerón, uno de los personajes más fascinantes de la antigua Roma, y consagra a Robert Harris como una de las figuras más destacadas de la ficción histórica.

Reseñas:

«Pocas veces se ha evocado la República de Roma, con toda su grandeza y corrupción, de una manera tan viva como en la novela de Robert Harris.»

The Times

«Una novela emocionante y provocadora.»

The Spectator

«La versión de Robert Harris de la deslumbrante figura de Cicerón es de una riqueza y un entretenimiento admirables.»

The Guardian

«Un homenaje no solo a unos acontecimientos extraordinarios, sino también a las habilidades narrativas de un maestro artesano.»

The Observer

«Dos de las grandes virtudes de Robert Harris son la minuciosidad y el absoluto dominio de los períodos históricos más complejos.»

The Independent
