Caminos de la comprensión (La balsa de la Medusa nº 185) (Spanish Edition) Hans Robert Jauss

El título se basa en la concepción compartida que comprender -tanto si se trata de una comprensión del otro en el habla como de la comprensión de textos- no se tiene que buscar por un único y obligatorio camino igual para todos, sino que puede alcanzarse por diversas vías. También corresponde a la experiencia de que hay siempre nuevas y diferentes preguntas por formular, las cuales posibilitan abrir otros accesos a la comprensión y hacer patentes aspectos de una persona o perspectivas sobre una cosa desconocidos hasta el momento.

Caminos de la comprensión recoge una antología de artículos de Jauss en la que podemos apreciar las líneas fundamentales de la estética de la recepción y la hermenéutica literaria. Dante, Shakespeare, Yves Bonnefoy, Paul de Man están presentes en sus páginas, pero también una mirada histórica al concepto de «comprensión», la controvertida relación entre estética y moral o la interpretación de relatos bíblicos.
