You're about to discover how to...

Get out of debt, but more importantly to stay out of debt and live a more abundant lifestyle.

I have read many how to books about getting out of debt, and tried many concepts with my wife that would work but only for a short period of time. We would quickly find our way right back in debt.

It wasn't until we started to change our mindset and work on our financial education that things started to drastically change for myself and family. Life is very different when debt is not hovering over your head. So many terrible decisions are made from being enslaved to debt. It doesn't have to be this way, but things must change with your level financial education first!
