If These Walls Could Talk Jon Falk, Dan Ewald

While games are won and lost on the field, it's in the locker room where stories are told, friendships are made, and memories are created during the best four years of any college player's life. Not only is Falk a walking encyclopedia on the universe of Michigan football tradition and history, he has helped to create part of the history that only the coaches and players experience. The stories are priceless and the friendships indelibly forged.
