Game plan for life: How to overcome life's challenges Jannie Putter

In Game Plan for Life Jannie Putter shares with readers what real success is and how everyone can be a champion. Just as we need strategies in order to have a game plan for sport or for projects, we need a game plan to steer and guide our daily lives. Using powerful anecdotes he points out the many pitfalls that may prevent us from reaching our true potential. Issues such as authority, rebellion, jealousy, arrogance, false perceptions, addictions, depressions, affairs and divorce are discussed. At the end of each chapter there is a self discovery section, where readers are given the opportunity to respond by answering questions about the main points of that section. Game Plan for Life is a game changer. It will help readers reflect on life and assist them in formulating and applying powerful strategies that will transform their thoughts and actions. Game Plan for Life can also be used in small groups.
