Relentless Love is a well-written, inspiring, encouraging book for believers that describes the relentless way God pursues humans with His love. Thom Gardner does a good job of balancing real life examples and Scripture to back up his points. The book paints a clear picture for believers who may be struggling with the concept of the kind of love God has for His people. The compassion and passionate love of God for His chosen people shine through the message of this book, and believers and nonbelievers alike will benefit from its message.
