Though the first year of motherhood is a blessing, it can also be a physical, emotional and spiritual challenge. This volume is designed to be read over the first year of the baby's life. Written specifically for new mothers who have only a few minutes to pray each day, the pieces in this devotional come from experienced moms of faith who offer companionship, insights, struggles and laughter. Twenty contributors share how God has been with them as they've changed diapers, gone through unexpected changes in their prayer lives, and dealt with changing relationships with friends, spouses and family.
