As time goes on, more and more material comes to light on the little-known early life of Brigham Young. Rather than chasing to and fro with all such threads of activity, this biography focuses more on his everyday life. While his activities were great, his life was driven by one motive – obedience. He strived diligently to be obedient to the will of God and the words spoken through the prophet while offering his never-ceasing support to the prophet and to all those in need. This biography portrays that diligent and obedience servant of God with his everyday actions.
