Can a ghost get happily ever after? *Due to language and content not for those under 18* Synopsis: The darkness is there, the light is there but she is here. I want to protect her. I can't leave her. My death has ripped her world in two. -Mikel He's still here, I feel him all around. At night his arms wrap around me and I can breathe again. I know he should go. I know he no longer belongs here, but I'm selfish and I don't want him to leave me. - Irish Review: Toni Michelle-Editor rated it 5 of 5 stars Recommends it for: ALL Get your tissues ready! I have read and reread this story... 4 times now. I love being a beta reader for Amanda Kay. I get great stories before they are published. I have loved every one of Amanda's stories. And they always keep getting better, but this one right here, there is nothing that compares! I mean NOTHING!!! The amount of tears I have cried over this book is just crazy. I could have ended any drought. Won't Cross Over is so heartbreaking, and so heartwarming. How on earth can it be both??? Especially the back and forth kind??? Well, I can promise you, my heart was ripped out constantly, and in the end, it was put back together and packed in a soft silky coffin all at the same time.
