Fascinadas por el pico: tres damas y un volcán (Escala en Tenerife) (Spanish Edition) Marianne Y D'Este, Margaret North-Frances Latimer

Este libro reúne tres muestras de la literatura de viajes escritas por otras tantas inglesas que visitaron Tenerife entre finales del siglo XIX y principios del XX: la pintora de plantas Marianne North llega a Tenerife en enero de 1876, en compañía de una amiga, permaneciendo cuatro meses en la isla; S. Frances Latimer, acompañada de su padre – el editor Isaac Latimer – recorre Tenerife y Gran Canaria durante los meses de marzo y abril de 1887; la viajera Margaret D'Este visita Tenerife, La Palma y Gran Canaria de enero a mayo de 1908 con su amiga la Sra King y una cámara fotográfica. Todas tienen en común su nacionalidad, el amor por los viajes, por la escritura, y su adscripción a esta etapa de la historia del Reino Unido que se conoce como  $\langle \rangle$  (1837-1901); pues aunque Margaret D'Este pertenece cronológicamente a la etapa eduardiana (1900-1914), su formación y actitud ante lo que ve es claramente victoriana

Al renunciar expresamente al supuesto carácter  $\langle \rangle$  y  $\langle \rangle$  con el que se adoban muchos relatos de viajeros de los siglos XVIII y XIX, las mujeres recogen en sus escritos aspectos que escapan a la mirada masculina. Así, lo percibido por una viajera resulta mucho más agudo, divertido y etnográficamente relevante.
