China is the economic story of the modern age. Fast growing and large in size, China recently overtook Japan as the world's second biggest economy. Part of this amazing growth is being driven by an exceptional group, female entrepreneurs, who are beginning to make a significant mark on the Chinese economic landscape. This book provides fascinating profiles of 15 Chinese female entrepreneurs - their day-to-day lives, businesses, plans and ambitions. Through one-on-one interviews in China, the author presents a highly revealing picture of these entrepreneurs and their role in China's economic expansion.
