An estimated 2 million children are homeschooled in the United States. This is a devotional for those dedicated parents.

Mellott's 180 anecdotal devotionals explore specific homeschooling issues and present biblical truths to guide parents through challenging times. Themes include:

- •Homeschool Basics—fundamentals such as obedience to the call, prioritizing, decision-making
- •Homeschool and You—how homeschooling affects the primary educator (and vice versa)
- •Homeschool and Family—juggling parenting, marriage, education, and domestic life
- •Gifts We Give Our Children—intangible gifts, from a godly heritage to freedom to pursue their dreams
- •And A Child Will Lead them—discovering life and faith though our child's eyes
- •Spiritual Vitamins: inspiration for Christian life, addressing fear, faith, prayer, and more
- •Faith of Their Own—intentional discipleship that nurtures children in their own faith

School Is Where the Home Is presents a unique blend of the practical and inspirational for today's homeschooling parents.
