Getting pregnant two months shy of her sixteenth birthday was never part of Lainey Winslow's plan. Then again, meeting Adam Montgomery on a cool summer night wasn't either. Faced with the hardest decision of her life, Lainey chooses Adam and their baby. But motherhood in high school isn't something that can ever be handled with ease and Adam's promises of forever only do so much to help. With summer long behind them and an uncertain future looming ahead of them, will Lainey and Adam figure out how to make it work? 'The Consequences of Forever' is a story about first love, friendship and the meaning of family.
